Our congratulations go out to all the pupils and staff in St Mirin's Primary as they begin to celebrate their Diamond Jubilee Year. The children helped us all to celebrate a beautiful Mass last Friday afternoon with the Archbishop and guests, including many of the former staff members and priests who have served here over the years and had a close link with the school.

One of the guests was Fr. John Keenan, who on Saturday was named as the Bishop elect of Paisley. Fr. John was in Christ the King for five years, following his ordination. Our best wishes and prayers go out to Fr. John as he prepares to take on such a vital role in the Church in Scotland.
