Day Conference on Disability and Sport.

To mark the Commonwealth Games the Archdiocese is hosting a day conference on disability and sport. It will be held on Thursday 17 July in the parish hall of Blessed John Duns Scotus. A poster and programme are displayed in the porch of the Church.

This is an opportunity to highlight our theology of respect for life at all times and to showcase the Archdiocese's initiatives in support of people with disabilities.

Professor John Swinton of the University of Aberdeen will be among those speaking; Professor Swinton is a Church of Scotland minister and his work on the theology of disability is becoming increasingly known throughout the world.

The conference is open to all. (Cost £40)
