Advent is the time we prepare for Christ. It's the great liturgical season of waiting, but not a passive waiting. We yearn, we search, and we reach out for the God who will come to us in human flesh.

Bread of Life—When singing the chorus of the Hymn "Bread of Life" could we please substitute the words "Lead us to our salvation" for the words as they are at present "Lead us to one another!".

Feast Days this Week

Monday: Solemnity of The Immaculate Conception

Saturday: Memorial of St. Lucy

Church stall is open after Vigil Mass and Sunday morning Masses. Selection of Christmas cards, Calendars, Diaries, Advent calendars and Nativity sets.

Flowers

We have been very fortunate to have both a talented and very committed Flower Group in the Parish. Over many years we have been indebted to both their talents and their generosity in terms of time and energies. The group, however, would be very keen to hear from anyone who would be able to give a hand in their endeavours. If you would be able to help in this direction then please let us know as soon as possible.

Considering a Career in Teaching?

A support event is being held in the Glasgow Archdiocese Offices, Eyre Hall, Clyde Street, Glasgow on Wednesday 7th January at 6.30pm. If you have applied or are considering applying to Glasgow University for primary teaching this meeting will offer advice and support on both the completion of application forms and in preparing effectively for the interview process. The event will be attended by existing head teachers who will be on hand to give advice. This event will be of great benefit to anyone thinking of a career in primary teaching.

Advent- New Beginnings: St Teresa speaks

There is no other remedy for the evil of giving up prayer than to begin again.

During Advent, Children's Liturgy of the Word will take place during the 6p.m. Vigil Mass.

Our congratulations and very best wishes go to Sara Patton and Gary Wallace who were married here last weekend.

Shroud of Turin

It has been announced that next year, 2015, there will be an extraordinary showing of the Holy Shroud of Turin. Turin is Glasgow's twin city and there are now daily flights from Scotland to Milan (which has a direct airport bus into Turin city centre). Since the Shroud is only exposed on very rare occasions, it has been decided to run a mini-pilgrimage from Glasgow which will be led by Archbishop Tartaglia. We have obtained access to the Shroud for Glasgow pilgrims at 5pm on Friday 5 June 2015. Due to limited numbers of pilgrims allowed into the presence of the shroud at any given slot, it will be important to register interest early.

Pilgrims can book their flights and hotels to suit their own needs, anything from a Thursday to Saturday trip to a longer holiday. The Archdiocese can advise on travel arrangements but pilgrims will make their own final arrangements. Return flights cost £100-£150 and accommodation can be found at all levels.

If you wish to register an interest please call on 0141 226 5898 or email: Ronnie.Convery@rcag.org.uk
