First Communion

Our congratulations to all the (83) boys and girls who have received their first Holy Communion over the last three weeks.

Our thanks to everyone who helped in preparing the children and preparing the liturgies. Thanks also to their teachers. A special word of thanks to Mr Jim McNeil who each year painstakingly copies each of the children's names so beautifully onto their certificates. Thanks also to Mrs. Agnes MacFadyen who ensures that all the practical details are perfectly in place for each of the 5 First Communion Masses.

Safeguarding training for PVG group (Eucharistic ministers to the sick / Legion of Mary / Youth Club/ Childrens' Liturgy).

The new archdiocesan safeguarding trainer, Caterina O'Connor, will deliver safeguarding training to all involved in the above ministries who have been through the PVG process. The training will take place in the upper church hall on the evening of Wednesday 10 June, 7.00-9.00. An up to date list of current PVG holders is on display at the back of the church on the safeguarding section of the noticeboard. Those who attended the previous training in December 2013 are more than welcome to attend and encouraged to come for an update and meet Caterina.

To facilitate planning for the evening it would be greatly appreciated if any who CANNOT attend inform Loretta Scott, 633 0841, otherwise attendance will be presumed.
