

PARISH OF CHRIST THE KING

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

23rd October 2016

Today's Readings:-

First Reading: Ecclesiasticus 35:12-14.16-19

The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds. .

Second Reading: Timothy 4:6-8.16-18

All there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me.

Gospel Luke 18: 9-14

The publican went home at rights with God; the Pharisee did not.

A parable for those proud of their virtue, but who despise everyone else! This one is about a Pharisee and a tax collector. Jesus' audience would have automatically warmed to the former and shunned the latter. The Pharisee's prayer is address to himself, because he is proud of his virtue. The other prays to God, because he is a sinner! God answers the latter, but is powerless to help the Pharisee who thinks he has everything.!

Children of the Holy Land—

Music and Song 1st December in the Hall.

An opportunity to contribute to improving the lives of children in the Holy Land. It will also be an evening to reflect on the approach of Christmas...and to hear of the effects of the generosity of giving at this time of the year, and hear of future plans directly from the Holy Land. Financial donations for the children of the "baby warehouses" in Palestine will be very welcome. Featuring—Frank O'Hagan; children of St Fillan's school; Talk from the Holy Land

Bar—Refreshments—Raffle—Donations at Entry—All welcome
(Professor Bart McGettrick)
