

PARISH OF CHRIST THE KING

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

30th October 2016

Today's Readings:-

First Reading: Ecclesiasticus 11:22-12:2

You are merciful to all because you love all that exists.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2.2

All there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me. The name of Christ will be glorified in you and you in him.

Gospel Luke 19:1-10

The Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.

Zaccheus is a Jew who is rejected as a sinner by his own people. They assume he is a sinner because he is a senior tax agents,. They presume he defrauds people. In this story "they" probably includes Jesus disciples. They, like others in the story, must realise that Zaccheus is as much a child of Abraham as each of them and, above all, that Jesus came to seek out and save what was lost.

Details re registration, which is direct to Claudia Mellis, are on the Safeguarding notice board at the back of the church but any queries can be made to Loretta Scott, Parish Safeguarding co-ordinator. Any PVG holder who has not taken part in archdiocesan training and who cannot attend either of these dates, are requested to contact the archdiocesan safeguarding administrator to consider alternative dates in the future schedule. All PVG holders are very much thanked for their cooperation."

Children of the Holy Land—

Music and Song 1st December in the Hall.

An opportunity to contribute to improving the lives of children in the Holy Land. It will also be an evening to reflect on the approach of Christmas...and to hear of the effects of the generosity of giving at this time of the year, and hear of future plans directly from the Holy Land. Financial donations for the children of the "baby warehouses" in Palestine will be very welcome.

Featuring—Frank O'Hagan; children of St Fillan's school; Talk from the Holy Land Bar—Refreshments—Raffle—Donations at Entry—All welcome
(Professor Bart McGettrick)
