

PARISH OF CHRIST THE KING

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

13th November 2016

Today's Readings:-

First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20

For you the sun of righteousness will shine out.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Do not let anyone have food if he refuses to work.

Gospel Luke 21: 5-19

Your endurance will win you your lives.

Not surprisingly, the disciples were impressed by the riches and the magnificence of the Temple. Perhaps some of them had not seen it before. Jesus uses this to make a series of prophetic statements about what awaits his disciples. First, the Temple itself will be destroyed. Second, there will be wars and revolutions. Third, his disciples will be handed over to the authorities. They however, are to stand fast, because their endurance will win them their lives.

Can anyone give Joe a helping hand?

Since its inception, the financial aspects of running the Hall have been very well looked after by Joe Byers. The popularity of the Hall has meant, in turn, that Joe's work for the Hall and the time he has given to it have been more than considerable. Is there anyone who would like to give some assistance in this area? Obviously some bookkeeping and accounting knowledge would be a real plus factor!
If you think you could help, please speak with Fr. Peter or with Joe himself as soon as possible.

The Church Stall is now open for the sale of:- Advent Calendars, Christmas Cards, Baby Gift Cards, Across the Sea Cards, Church Art Calendars, Sticker Books (Stocking Fillers), Rosary Beads, Medals, Cribs, Holy Water Fonts and various other pious objects.

Baptism

We were delighted to welcome Max McCall into the family of God last weekend through the Sacrament of Baptism. Our congratulations go out to his parents and godparents and to all members of his family.
