

PARISH OF CHRIST THE KING

Fifth Sunday of Easter (A)

14th May 2017

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 6,1-7

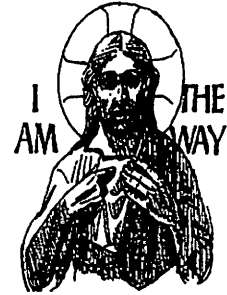

They elected seven men full of the Holy Spirit

Second Reading 1 Peter 2:4-9

You have come back to the shepherd of your souls

Gospel John 14,1-12

I am the way, the truth and the life.

The Farewell Discourse of Jesus at the Last Supper is revisited now in Eastertide to allow us to see the fullness of the truth and life promised by Resurrection faith. Jesus is the way, the Truth and Life and all that God promises, not in the sense of formulae or explanations (as Thomas and then Philip seek) but as the path or way we must walk.

First Communion

Our congratulations and prayerful best wishes to the 83 children who received their First Holy Communion last weekend. We look forward to sharing with them fully at the table of God's love for us in the Eucharist.

Our thanks to all who helped in many different ways to prepare the Church and the liturgy and a special word of thanks to Mr Jim McNeil for painstakingly completing the 83 First Communion certificates and to Mrs. Agnes McFadyen for preparing the booklets, and for taking care of all the names and layout of places in the Church. Thanks as always to our Ministers of Welcome, Eucharistic Ministers and servers.

And finally, thanks also to our teachers for their vitally important work of catechesis with the children.

Flourish Latest issue of our Archdiocesan journal, Flourish, is available in the porch.
