

PARISH OF CHRIST THE KING

The Epiphany of The Lord
7th January 2018

First Reading Isaiah 60:1-6

Above you the glory of the Lord appears.

Second Reading Ephesians 3:2-3. 5-6

It has now been revealed that pagans share the same inheritance.

Gospel Matthew 2:1-12

We saw his star and have come to do the king homage.

The search for God is fundamental to our being. The Magi had to study, to travel a great distance, to trust that they were being led by God, and then when they found a small baby in a manger, to accept that this was what they were looking for, however surprising it appeared. Our search for God also must lead us to that stable, where the Light of the World shines out into our hearts.

From the SE Foodbank.....

"I am writing on behalf of Glasgow South East Foodbank to thank you and your congregation for the wonderful response to our Christmas request. The donations which came from the congregation of Christ the King were quite staggering and allowed us to give food and some treats/gifts to all those who came to the Foodbank. Many thanks once again and best wishes for the New Year."

Asylum Seekers, Refugees and Immigrants

Asylum for Refugees is a gospel responsibility which sees Christ suffering in the distress of others and requires us to do something more than consider self interest.

The responsibility to offer refugees hospitality, solidarity and assistance lies first of all with the local Church... Her task takes on various forms: personal contact; defence of the rights of individuals and groups; the denunciation of the injustices that are at the root of this evil; action for the adoption of laws that will guarantee their effective protection; education against xenophobia; the creations of groups of volunteers and of emergency funds; pastoral care.
